A Lesson or Two For Today's Clergy

The London Underground Church in Orange Street Church

The clergy of the churches in Britain have no knowledge of science and little knowledge of their Bibles.

There are differences between races. Professor Wesley C. George, Emeritus Professor of Histology and Embryology, formerly head of the Department of Anatomy, North Carolina Medical School, wrote:—

‘There is no human race but a human species composed of four main racial groups: the Caucasoid, the Mongoloid, the Congo-id and the Australoid all of which differ from each other far more than many animal groups which are scientifically accepted as being different species. These differences are fundamental being those of physique, psychology and intellect. There is evidence to show that the Caucasoid people, the white race, have creative abilities and talents that have not yet been demonstrated to any extent by the Negro race.’

Professor R. Ruggles Gates wrote in his Human Ancestry, published by Harvard University Press in 1948: “The primary so-called races of living men have arisen independently from different ancestral groups and species in different continents at different times.” Race is a matter of genes and not environment.

It is known that there were races of man-like creatures in existence before the creation of Adam and Eve and the Rev. P. E. K. Victor Pearce, an anthropologist, in his book Who was Adam? has shown that these pre-Adamites were the Old Stone Age Men, the hunters and gatherers who are still in the world today.

These findings are in accord with ancient scriptures for in Genesis 1.24-25 we read:– “And God said, let the earth bring forth the living creature (Chay Eretz, Hebrew, ‘living creature of the earth’) after his kind, the cattle and creeping things and the beasts of the earth after their kind.”

Note the masculine gender in the passage above. The word translated “man” is Awdawm meaning one who shows a rosy blush in the face. There is only one race that can show a rosy blush in the face and that is the white race.

This Awdawm was told to be fruitful and multiply and was made God’s representative figure (Tselem) to have control over God’s creation as God’s deputy (Psalm 8 and Genesis 1.26-28). He was made a living soul and all animals were brought before him to see what he would name them – “But for Adam there was not found a help mate for him” – so God made the woman Eve from the body of Adam (the word translated rib is tsalah, literally ‘curved of the body’).

“And Adam said, this is now bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh... therefore shall a man leave his father and his mother and shall cleave unto his wife: and they shall be one flesh.”

The tree in biblical language has a racial context. The Olive Tree stands for Israel (Romans 11), the Fig Tree stands for the Jews (Matthew 21.19, 45), the Assyrians are Cedars (Ezekiel 31). The Lord Jesus Christ refers to trees when giving us an indication of his second coming in Luke 21.29, applicable to the United Nations:–

“And He spake unto them a parable; Behold the Fig Tree and all the trees; when they now shoot forth. ye see and know of your own selves that summer is nigh at hand. So likewise ye, when ye see these things come to pass, know ye that the Kingdom of God is nigh at hand.” Adam and Eve were given the Law; they were forbidden to eat of the Tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil.

In Genesis 3.1 we read:– “Now the serpent was more subtle than any beast of the field (Chay Eretz).” The word translated “serpent” is Nacrash meaning an enchanter, a wizard, this is the personal name of this living creature. This creature could reason, dispute, speak and walk upright. He persuaded the woman to eat of the fruit of the forbidden tree.

Cain, the son of Adam and Eve, formed a relationship with a Chay Eretz, a pre-Adamite female (Genesis 4.7): “If thou doest not well, sin lieth at the door. And unto thee shall be his desire, and thou shalt rule over him.” The word Chay is a masculine word (Genesis 1.25); the Chay were made after his kind. In Genesis 2.16 we read:– “Thy desire shall be to thy husband and he shall rule over thee.” Therefore the desire of Cain’s consort would be to Cain and he would rule over her.

The Apostle Jude refers to this in verses 7 and 11:– “Woe unto them for they have gone in the way of Cain... giving themselves over to fornication and going after strange flesh.” Cain was afraid that he would be killed: who was going to kill him? The Chay Eretz. Cain married his consort and built a city; built a city for whom? And with whose help? The Chay Eretz, the pre-Adamite people.

God made the different races for His own purpose and glory, He did not intend them to interbreed. On the plains of Kenya there are the Grant’s Gazelle and the Thompson’s Gazelle; they are almost the same size and look alike except for differences in colouring and marking; they never interbreed.

The Adamites corrupted their flesh by interbreeding and brought upon themselves the Great Flood. “The Sons of God (see Luke 3.38) saw the daughters of Men (descendants of Cain) that they were fair and took to themselves all they chose... there were giants in the world in those days... the Sons of God came in unto the daughters of men and they bare children to them, the same became mighty men.” The word “giant” is Nephil which can mean a tyrant and a bully, the word translated “mighty” is Gibbor meaning a warrior and a tyrant. The Adamites saw the hybrid daughters of Cain that they were fair and copulated with them and their children were tyrants and bullies.

And “The Earth was corrupt before God and the earth was filled with violence. And God looked upon the earth and behold it was corrupt: for all flesh had corrupted his ways on the earth.” The flesh of the Adamites had become mingled with the flesh of the Chay Eretz: the mixture of Adamite and Chay flesh in the offspring was corrupt flesh. This is referred to by the Lord Jesus Christ in Matthew 24.37-39:– “But as in the days of Noe, so also shall the coming of the Son of Man be, for as in the days before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage until the day that Noe entered into the ark, and knew not until the flood came and took them all away, so also shall the coming of the Son of Man be.” But “Noah was a just man and perfect in his generations” (Genesis 6.9). He was of pure Adamite stock as were the other members of his family with him. They were saved in the ark together with full blooded members of the Chay Eretz.

In Genesis 9.20-29 we see that Noah cursed Canaan the younger son of Ham for a sin that Ham committed, making Canaan and his people after him servants to their brethren. Why did he not curse Ham who was the culprit? Because Ham had copulated with a Chay Eretz female saved in the ark and Canaan and his breed were hybrids.

All through the Old Testament the Israelites were warned not to interbreed with the people about them; the Canaanites were a mongrel breed of degenerates whom the Israelites were instructed to destroy. Sodom and Gomorrah were degenerates and were destroyed. Archaeologists have found evidence of syphilis in the bones found at the site of Jericho and Joshua destroyed Jericho.

Phinehas was praised because he drove his javelin through the bodies of the Israelite prince Zimri and the Midianite woman Cozbi found copulating (Numbers 25.1 and 10-13). Balaam was slain for advocating the racial integration of Israel with the Canaanites and this is referred to in 2 Peter 2.15 and Jude 11.

We read in Deuteronomy 23.2:– “A mamzer (hybrid) shall not enter into the congregation of the Lord; even unto his tenth generation shall he not enter into the congregation of the Lord.” In Jeremiah 16.17-18 we read: “And first I will recompense their iniquity and their sin double; because they have defiled my land; they have filled my inheritance (Israel: Jeremiah 10.16; 51.19, Isaiah 19.25) with the carcasses of their detestable and abominable things (hybrids).”

In Ezra 9.2 we read:– “For they have taken their daughters for themselves and for their sons: so that the Holy Seed (of Adam) have mingled themselves with the people of those lands.”

To show the lack of biblical knowledge of even Bishops and Archbishops of the established church, they quote Leviticus 19.33-34 in support of multi-racialism in Britain:– “If a stranger lives among you in your land do not molest him. You must count him as one of your own countrymen and love him as yourselves for you were strangers in Egypt. I am the Lord your God.”

The word translated “stranger” in this passage is Ger. These people were of the same racial stock as the Israelites. They were Hebrews. To become citizens they had to circumcise their males, keep the Feast of the Passover and obey all the laws of Israel. Moreover this text refers to a stranger in the singular, and cannot be interpreted to justify the invasion of one’s native land by way of mass immigration by aliens.

There are three other words translated “stranger” in the Old Testament:– The Towshab, foreign immigrant settlers whose status was inferior to the Israelites and the Ger; the Zuwr, mixed breeds who were completely outside the religious life of Israel and could not marry an Israelite; the Nokriy who had no blood relationship with the Israelites and who were treated as aliens and foreigners. “A Nokriy shall not come into the congregation of the Lord for ever” (Nehemiah 13.1 and Deuteronomy 23.2-3). No stranger was ever to be set above an Israelite (Deuteronomy 25.5).

The following is from a letter from a West Indian lady of mixed blood:–
‘You see I am one of those people described as “nearly white” and I know the unhappiness of our kind. I therefore think it is a sin to bring people into the world who are burdened with complexes [the consequences of race-mixing] which in turn give rise to positive anguish to their extremely sensitive minds. I believe it to be the work of the devil, and have been praying for a long time that God would reveal this fact to the world. I shall continue to pray for you and all those who believe in keeping the races as God made them and I hope that you will pray for us who have been so sinned against.

‘We try to forget it but it remains like a hidden cancer in our minds... There is a lot that needs to be disclosed concerning the mind of the “Imperfect Race” of half-breeds. One thing they do know – is that it is not true that blacks and whites are equal.’

International Financiers, political Zionists, International Communists and other aliens together with the fools they have indoctrinated are attempting to force the white race to integrate with the Negroes and Asiatics who have been brought in for the purpose so that the Master Race shall have control over a society of mixed breeds.
